FOREWORD

The OHIO HIGHER EDUCATION NOTEBOOK provides an overview of Ohio Educational opportunities at the college and university, branch and academic center, and community, technical and junior college levels. Information about the United States Service Academies is also included in the Notebook.

To be listed in the Notebook institutions must be officially recognized by one or more of the following agencies: The State of Ohio Department of Education, the Ohio Board of Regents, or the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. All such institutions in the State of Ohio are invited to submit information for the Notebook.

Appreciation is extended to all of the following who assisted in the development of this publication: the Ohio Board of Regents; the admissions personnel and administrators of the participating institutions; Lillian Roof for the art work, and Mrs. Betty Baumann, Secretary, Division of Guidance and Testing.

Harry R. Meek, Coordinator, Field Services Section, Division of Guidance and Testing, serves as editor of the OHIO HIGHER EDUCATION NOTEBOOK.

Martin W. Essex
Superintendent of Public Instruction

BRANCHES AND ACADEMIC CENTERS

BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY BRANCHES AND ACADEMIC CENTERS

Bowling Green State University operates a branch campus at Firelands and Academic Centers at Fostoria, Four County Technical Institute, and Fremont.

Students at the Firelands Campus may enroll in pre-baccalaureate programs in the Colleges of Arts and Science, Business Administration, and Education. Certain Associate of Arts degrees are also offered; these include Associate in Applied Business (Executive Secretarial Program), Environmental Technology, Construction Technology, and Graphic Communications.

Students at Academic Centers may complete the first two years of the baccalaureate in Arts and Science, Business Administration, and Education.

In addition to lower division courses, students at both the branch and the academic centers may take selected upper division and graduate courses by extension. Students at Firelands may complete all but a few required courses that are part of the bachelor's degree in elementary education.

Departments offering courses at the branch and the centers include accounting, art, biology, business administration, business education, business law, chemistry, computer science, economics, education, English, finance and insurance, geography, geology, health and physical education, history, home economics, industrial education and technology, library science, management, marketing, mathematics, music, philosophy, physics, political science, psychology, quantitative analysis and control, Spanish, sociology, and speech.

Classes are open to any qualified adult. Those not seeking a specific degree may take work as an unclassified student. Those seeking a degree must apply for admission to the University. An application for admission may be obtained from the Office of Admissions on the main campus, the Dean of the Firelands Campus, or the directors of the Academic Centers.

RAYMOND WALTERS GENERAL AND TECHNICAL COLLEGE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

The RWC offers the first two years of the following pre-baccalaureate programs:

Liberal Arts	Pre-Business Education
Pre-Medicine	Pre-Business Administration
Pre-Law	Pre-Pharmacy
Pre-Dentistry	Pre-Social Work
Pre-Elementary Education	Pre-Dietetic
Pre-Secondary Education	Theater Arts

It also offers the following two-year career-oriented programs:

Industrial Management	Nursing
Retail Management	Dental Hygiene
General Management	Medical Radioisotope Technology
Executive Secretarial Training	Radiologic Technology Training
Legal Secretarial Training	Animal Care Technology
Medical Secretarial Training	Teacher Aides
General Secretarial Training	Community Service Aides
Science Technology	Library Technology

A student can readily transfer from one of these programs to a related baccalaureate program without serious loss of credits as long as he has grades of C or better in each of the courses for which he wishes transfer credit. All programs give the graduate an associate degree in science or in arts. The RWC has an open-door policy on admissions so that students may be admitted regardless of rank in class. It expects all students to have taken the SAT or ACT test. Some of the specialized programs have specific requirements such as two years of mathematics, chemistry, biology, or physics. Students in military service will be accepted on the basis of the G.E.D. test.

Applications for admission may be obtained from Raymond Walters College office or from the Admissions Office, University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio 45221.

TRI-COUNTY ACADEMIC CENTER of the UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

The Tri-County Academic Center aims to give opportunity for higher education to high school graduates in Adams, Brown, and Highland counties. The Center offers three pre-baccalaureate programs (Liberal Arts, Pre-Education, and Pre-Business Education) and seven career-oriented programs (Executive Secretarial Training, Business Management, Farm Management, Library Science, Industrial Management, Real Estate, Retail Marketing and Sales, and Community Service Aides). All of these programs are two-year programs and give to successful graduates the degree of associate in science or in arts. Through its open-door policy, the Center admits all high school graduates regardless of rank in class. It expects all students to have taken the SAT or ACT test.

Applications for admission may be obtained from the Tri-County Academic Center office, P.O. Box 71, Sardinia, Ohio 45171, or from the Office of Admissions, University of Cincinnati, Old Commons Building, Cincinnati, Ohio 45221.

KENT STATE UNIVERSITY - REGIONAL CAMPUSES

Kent State University's Regional Campuses is the largest operation of its kind in the State of Ohio, having enrolled nearly 8,000 students in the Fall Quarter, 1970.

The regional Campuses bear the same accreditation as the main campus and thus have the same admission requirements. Faculty are hired through regular University channels and must meet the same requirements as those hired for the main campus. They are members of their main campus departments. Courses taught in the Regional Campuses use the same syllabi and textbooks as the main campus and are thus fully transferable both to the main campus and other colleges and universities.

A student attending a Regional Campus can complete two years of course work and more in the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education, and Fine and Professional Arts.

In addition, there are many programs leading to the Associate Degree. They are: At the Ashtabula Regional Campus: Office Administration, Nursing, Industrial Management, and Electrical, Industrial, and Mechanical Engineering Technology. At the Columbiana Regional Campus: Civil, Electrical, Mechanical, Industrial, and Electro-Mechanical Engineering Technology. At the Tuscarawas County Regional Campus: Nursing, and Industrial and Mechanical Engineering Technology. At the Trumbull Regional Campus: Computer Science, Industrial Management, and Electrical, Industrial, and Mechanical Engineering Technology. At the Stark County Regional Campus, Trumbull Regional Campus, Ashtabula, and Salem Regional Campuses Law Enforcement is offered.

Applications for admission and further information concerning Regional Campus programs may be obtained from any of the regional campuses.

MIAMI UNIVERSITY BRANCHES

Students in the Miami University (Ohio) branches can complete two (daytime) or more (evening) years of work in arts and science, business administration, education and applied science, and a limited amount of (evening) graduate work. A student may also audit courses or register as a special part-time student.

Courses include: accountancy, art education, art, botany, business, chemistry, classics, economics, education, English, French, geography, geology, German, history, home economics, industrial education, library science, marketing, management, mathematics, music, nursing, physical education, physics, political science, psychology, religion, sociology (and anthropology), Spanish, speech, systems analysis, physiology and zoology.

Classes are open to any qualified adult who can take work with profit, but those working toward degrees or teaching certificates must meet the usual university requirements.

Two-year Associate Degree Programs - Middletown: Industrial Technology, Nursing, Secretarial Science, and Library Technology.

Two-Year Associate Degree Programs - Hamilton: Industrial Technology, Nursing, Secretarial Science, Library Technology, Paper and Pulp Technology, Educational Technology, and Systems Analysis. Certificate Program: Industrial Education.

Applications for admission may be obtained from the Directors of Admission and Records of the branch campuses, Miami University - Hamilton Campus, 45001 or Miami University - Middletown Campus, 45042.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY REGIONAL CAMPUSES

The regional campus system of The Ohio State University is organized (for the most part) within the University College. The University College of The Ohio State University specializes in freshman and sophomore college studies. All collegiate programs in the University College carry the same full accreditation as work taken in any other undergraduate college. Credits may be transferred from the University College to any other college or university in which a student may wish to pursue specific or advanced programs of study. Students may enroll in the University College of The Ohio State University on any one of its regional campuses at Lima, Mansfield, Marion or Newark.

Programs of study on the various campuses provide comprehensive coverage of the first two years of undergraduate education, and some offerings on the third-year and fourth-year levels and in special graduate studies. Most of the courses offered are those required in the first two years of the curricula for the undergraduate colleges of The Ohio State University (Administrative Science, Agriculture and Home Economics, The Arts, Biological Sciences, Education, Engineering, Humanities, Mathematics and Physical Sciences, and Social and Behavioral Sciences). Students interested in professional programs also may obtain courses preparatory to entering such fields as Allied Medical Professions, Dental Hygiene, Dentistry, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Optometry, Pharmacy, and Veterinary Medicine. Students not having made a choice of college programs can pursue studies in the General Baccalaureate Curriculum without loss in progress toward a degree.

Applications may be obtained from any of the regional campuses or from The Ohio State University, Admissions Office, 190 North Oval Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

OHIO UNIVERSITY'S REGIONAL CAMPUSES IN SOUTHEASTERN OHIO

Ohio University's regional campuses provide the student a place in which he can make an effective beginning. The treasured intimacy of the small college is preserved while the extensive resources of a major university are utilized. Faculty appointments are based upon the individual's qualifications and ability to teach. A major advisor is available to each student on the regional campus. A student may begin a major program, but is not required to do so.

He may take courses unrestricted by the requirements of a given major program, or he may declare a major and proceed right away. Some students combine both approaches by beginning a major program their second year after exploring a variety of subjects during their freshman year.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS - Applicant who can commute to a campus - graduate of accredited Ohio high school. Applicant who cannot commute to a campus - same as Athens Campus requirements.

REQUIRED ADMISSIONS TEST - Scholastic Aptitude test. Fall date recommended.

ADMISSIONS APPLICATIONS - May be obtained at the local campus or from the Office of Admissions, Ohio University, Athens, Ohio.

FEES - The total fee for full-time resident students is $180 per quarter. Books, on the average, cost about $35 per quarter. Part-time resident fee: $17 per quarter hour.

FINANCIAL AID - See "Financial Aid Information" under Ohio University in the College and University section of the "Ohio Higher Education Notebook."

ASSOCIATE DEGREES - An Associate in Science Degree requires the completion of a two-year curricula that can furnish a background for certain professional schools or for employment in special positions. An Associate Degree in nursing is available at the Zanesville and Portsmouth campuses. This degree entails a very comprehensive two-year program which will prepare a candidate for the State Board Examination for Registered Nurses. Zanesville also has an Associate Degree in Radio-Television Technology. The Lancaster campus offers a Library Technical Assistant Associate Degree.

WRIGHT STATE UNIVERSITY BRANCH CAMPUS AND ACADEMIC CENTER

Wright State University operates the Piqua Academic Center and the Western Ohio Branch Campus at Celina through its Division of Continuing Education.

Both locations offer courses primarily at the lower division level in liberal arts, education, science, and business administration, the major academic divisions of the University. Courses at the advanced and graduate levels are scheduled to meet the needs of the area. The classes at the Piqua Academic Center are restricted to late afternoon and evening, and academic counseling is provided by resident staff members and by representatives of Wright State's academic colleges. Daytime and evening courses are offered at the Branch Campus at Celina, where a resident faculty and staff provide advising and counseling services.

Students may register for a part-time or a full-time program of courses at either off campus location and may take courses simultaneously in Piqua and Celina as well as on the main campus. All credits earned in Celina and Piqua are considered residence credit by the University. Both the Center and the Branch are fully accredited and have the same admission requirements and academic standards as the main campus. Courses are fully transferable to the main campus or to other universities.

Application for admissions and further information concerning branch programs may be obtained from either campus.
